

A detailed illustration for a movie poster. At the top, a giant, mechanical, armored figure with a crown and a face with a single eye and a mustache stands with arms outstretched. It is surrounded by lightning and flying ships. Below it, the title "CASTLE IN THE SKY" is written in a stylized, serif font. In the foreground, three characters are shown: a man in a military uniform on the left, a young man in a pilot's helmet and goggles in the center, and a woman in a pilot's uniform on the right holding a gun. The background is a dramatic sky with clouds and distant windmills.
